

LONG ISLAND BUSINESS

the newsweekly for L.I. executives

Our 33rd Year • December 4, 1985 • No. 50

The Townsend Letter

INSIDERS ON LI ARE TALKING ABOUT:

- restoration of 102-year-old 86-ft "Little Jennie" bugeye ketch by WILLIAM TOWNSEND PERKS of Centerport to give LI the lead in the Op Sail '86 celebration of the Statue of Liberty Centennial on July 4th as America's oldest still-sailing ship in the line;
- continuing delay of NYS DOT in completing LIE's service roads & median 4th lane while prioritizing LIE resurfacing between exits 52 & 57 at $8 million;
- Huntington Town planning moratorium on Rte 110 Corridor office construction because of roadway congestion caused by the town's failure to complete network of town reliever roads within the corridor;
- NYS, having set up an arbitrary deadline of 1990

Continued on Page 33